General Information

HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

The first Legislature to assemble after the adoption of the post-bellum Constitution, established, July 11, 1870, a system of public schools. For twelve years or more the conduct of these schools was entrusted to such teaching force as was found ready at hand. In this experimental period nothing was more fully demonstrated than that if the returns were to be in any wise commensurate with the cost and the high mission of the system, some provision must be made for a reliable source of supply of teachers, fitted by education and training for their work. To meet this demand the Legislature, on March 7, 1884, passed an act establishing a State Female Normal School. In October of the same year the school was opened, buildings, already in use for school purposes, having been donated by the town of Farmville.

One hundred ten students were enrolled the first session. From the outset the school has steadily grown, making necessary, from time to time, the enlargement of its accommodations. In January, 1914, the Legislature changed the name to State Normal School for Women at Farmville, and in January, 1924, to State Teachers College at Farmville.

In January, 1916, the Legislature granted to the Virginia Normal School Board the privilege of conferring degrees in education. At the next meeting of the Board this school was authorized to offer a four-year course leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education.

During the forty-eight years of its existence the college has sent out 4,952 graduates, nearly all of whom are, or have been, teachers of the public schools in the State. There have been 15,276 matriculates. Of these, a large number (besides those who have been graduated) have carried to different sections of the State some knowledge of the methods and aims of the college.

PURPOSE

This college exists as a technical institution for the training of teachers to carry on the work of popular education in the State of Virginia. The central idea is to inspire young women to enter the profession of teaching with clear and accurate ideas of the various educational problems that confront the public school teacher.

It is no longer deemed adequate that a teacher be proficient in subject matter only; professional training must be added. Hence, even in the academic work, the professional idea is emphasized. Incidental instruction in methods is everywhere given in connection with the presentation of subject matter. Every department in the institution lends its assistance to the department of education in inspiring the young teachers with the loftiest ideals of what the true teacher should be, and what sort of service should be given the State.

Thus, it becomes apparent that the purpose of the institution is to give to the teachers of the State of Virginia the highest professional skill possible in the training of her future citizens.

LOCATION

Farmville is a healthful and pleasant town of about three thousand five hundred inhabitants. It has good schools, hotels, an up-to-date hospital, and five churches—Baptist, Episcopal, Methodist, Presbyterian and Lutheran. Its location on the Norfolk and Western railroad, about midway between Lynchburg and Petersburg, puts it in communication with all parts of the State.

COLLEGE PLANT

The college plant consists of a group of connected buildings, a Training School, and small dormitories. The main building contains an auditorium, reception hall, recreation hall, parlors, sitting rooms, library, class rooms, laboratories, offices, gymnasium, and dining hall. This building, together with the small dormitories, furnishes home accommodations for between eight and nine hundred students.

One of the buildings in this connected group is a well-equipped infirmary in charge of a physician and a trained nurse who live in the building and give their entire time to the health of the students.

The Campus Training School is a modern school building, planned and constructed to meet the needs of a thoroughly up-to-date school.

TRAINING SCHOOL FACILITIES AND ORGANIZATION

The Training School system is composed of the campus training school comprising the kindergarten, the elementary school, the college high school, and five rural schools—John Randolph, Rice, Worsham, Curdsville, and Cumberland.

The head of the department of education is also director of teacher-training. In this way the professional courses of the college and the teaching in the training school are unified and associated in a way that would not be possible if the two phases of the work were under separate control. Each one of the elementary grades of the local training school is in charge of a grade supervisor. The heads of the academic departments of the college whose courses are represented in the primary and grammar grades, observe the teaching of their respective subjects in the grades and co-operate with the general supervisors in the professional guidance of the student teachers, and of the pupils.

In the high school the work of each department is under the direct supervision of that member of the college department whose special field is the teaching of his or her subject in the secondary schools. Thus the supervisor of each high school subject is a specialist, not only in the subject matter of the department, but in the technique of supervision.

The student teaching at John Randolph, Rice, Worsham, Curdsville, and Cumberland, is under the general guidance of the director of teacher-training and under the special guidance of another member of the department especially trained in rural education. In addition to these two, the teaching of the students in each school is under the direction of a supervisor. In this two-fold organization the professional spirit of the college pervades the instruction in the rural schools as it does in the campus training school, and the instruction in each school is unified throughout.

Every effort is made to get the student into the kind of teaching for which she is best suited and arrangements are so made that the student who is teaching may be practically free for this work. No student is granted either a diploma or degree until she has demonstrated that she is qualified to teach.

THE COLLEGE YEAR

The college year comprises the winter session of thirty-six weeks (divided into three quarters), and the summer session of eleven weeks making the fourth quarter.

The holidays are one day at Thanksgiving, and the Christmas holidays. Students are strongly urged to come prepared to remain at college. Frequent trips home during the session except for special reasons are discouraged. The schedule is made on the six-day basis, hence week-ends away from college invariably mean either classes missed on Saturday, or attended without preparation on Monday.

Parents are asked to co-operate with the administration in this matter.

THE SUMMER QUARTER

The summer quarter is designed primarily to meet the needs of teachers who are in service. The two-year courses are offered, leading to the diploma; and graduates of these courses can get advanced work in the third and fourth years, leading to the degree. It also serves college students who may have missed a quarter of the regular session, or who wish to be in college for four quarters of a year, rather than for the three of the regular session only.

Special courses, complete in six weeks, are provided for those who wish to renew certificates.

EXPENSES

Students must be prepared to make the following payments at the beginning of each quarter:

	FALL	WINTER	SPRING
Matriculation and College Fees--$	25.00	$ 25.00	$ 25.00
Board -----	85.00	70.00	70.00
	<hr/>	<hr/>	<hr/>
Totals-----	$ 110.00	$ 95.00	$ 95.00

Tuition for pay students (those who do not hold the State Scholarship), payable in advance, is as follows: Fall Quarter, $10.00; Winter Quarter, $10.00; Spring Quarter, $10.00.

Laboratory fees must be paid before enrolling in classes. These fees are stated in connection with the outline of the courses in which they are required.

The total expense for the session, exclusive of textbooks and laboratory fees, is as follows: for a student holding the State Scholarship, $300.00; for a pay student, $330.00.

Board, including furnished room, laundry, bed linen, and table napkins, is $225.00 for the entire session. No reduction is made for absence less than thirty days.

For the convenience of patrons who find it impossible to pay the board for a quarter in advance, it may be paid in nine installments of $25.00 each, payable in advance, on the fifteenth of each month.

Checks for board and fees should be made payable to the student. All money due the college should be paid to the Treasurer, and receipts taken therefor. No student is enrolled in her classes until she can show a receipt for entrance fees. No diploma or certificate is granted to anyone until all sums due the college are paid.

The Campus Fee covers subscription to the college paper (The Rotunda), Athletic Association dues, Student Association dues, Y. W. C. A. support. Lyceum Course ticket, and Debate Club fund.

Each student must supply her own textbooks. Books will be furnished at publisher's prices, with the cost of handling added. Students should come prepared to buy their books at once. These cost about $15.00.

The dormitories accommodate nine hundred students, and no one is allowed to board in the town unless with relatives; in such cases the student must get the consent of the President.

STATE SCHOLARSHIPS

The State Scholarship entitles the student to free tuition in return for her pledge to teach two years in the public schools of Virginia.

Students applying for the Scholarship should have their application signed by their Division Superintendent before returning it to the Registrar. They will be notified if Scholarship is granted. The State Scholarship is open to residents of Virginia only. Students from other States, and those from Virginia who do not hold the State Scholarship enter as Pay Students, and pay a tuition fee of $30.00 per session.

All communications of inquiry, requests for catalogues, etc., should be made to the Registrar.

UNITED DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY SCHOLARSHIP

The United Daughters of the Confederacy have established the Kate Noland Garnett Scholarship, which is worth $150.00 annually to the holder. Applicants for this scholarship should write Mrs. R. Sidney Cox, Smithfield, Va., who will consider the various applications for this scholarship and award the same.

Holder of Scholarship 1931-1932—Sarah Rowell.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION LOAN FUND

As a part of their patriotic work The Daughters of the American Revolution have established Student Loan Funds; the State Teachers College at Farmville appreciates their generosity in making this assistance available to students of the institution.

No school shall borrow more than $300 in one year and no student shall borrow more than $150 in one school term, and no student may borrow more than a total of $300. A student desiring to borrow from this fund must make application in her own handwriting to the President of the College she is attending, stating therein her full name, age, home address, and class in college. The fund is open to juniors and seniors only.

If the President of the College considers the applicant worthy, and so endorses her application, he shall forward the same to the State Treasurer of the Daughters of the American Revolution, who will send him the amount to be loaned, together with a blank note. The Treasurer must send the application paper to the Chairman of the Student Loan and Scholarship Fund. The said note is to be signed by the student and witnessed by the President of the College, who endorsed the application, and he shall return the signed note to the State Treasurer's custody, and it becomes a part of the assets of the society.

The notes are to be for a term of two years, and to bear no interest. If a note is renewed, it shall bear 4 per cent per annum. If by reason of illness a note cannot be paid when due, it may be renewed without interest for one year, at the discretion of the State Treasurer and the Regent of the Chapter nearest to the home of the drawer of the note.

A college that is a beneficiary of the Student Loan and Scholarship Fund must publish in its regular annual catalogue an acknowledgment of the work of the Virginia Daughters of the American Revolution in rendering assistance to the students of the institution.

Holders of Scholarship 1931-1932—Kathleen Clement and Margaret Gathright.

VIRGINIA NORMAL LEAGUE

The Virginia Normal League was organized in 1899 by Dr. Robert Fraser, then President of the school. The object of the League is to found and maintain a loan fund for those students who would otherwise be unable to attend college. This fund is maintained by the annual membership dues of one dollar, and by voluntary contributions from outside sources. Its aim is to help by loans, without interest, young women who wish to prepare for effective service as teachers. It offers a good opportunity to extend a helping hand to coming generations as well as this. Any contribution large or small will be gratefully received. All of the funds of the League are in use. As soon as any amount is returned it is loaned out again for the demand is greater than the supply. The largest amount available for any one student in a session is $150.00. Requests for loans should be made in writing, by May 10, of preceding session.

For further details, write to one of the following:

Miss Martha W. Coulling, President.

Miss Minnie V. Rice, Chairman Finance Committee.

Miss Estelle Smithey, Chairman Loan Fund.

In making loans preference is given to Juniors and Seniors, or Sophomores in the two-year courses. Loans are made on personal notes renewable yearly until paid. Requests for loans should be made in writing.

CUNNINGHAM MEMORIAL LOAN FUND

The alumnae of the college who graduated during the administration of Dr. John A. Cunningham, from 1886 to 1896, raised a fund, intending to establish a scholarship in memory of his faithful and loving service to them and to the State, feeling that the most fitting tribute that could be paid him would be the effort to give to those who are unable to obtain it for themselves the training for the work to which he devoted his life.

When this fund amounted to $1,000 it was changed from a scholarship fund to a loan fund and placed in the hands of the President to be used for this purpose.

Five per cent interest is charged, and properly endorsed notes are required. Thus, it is proving of great assistance to some of our best students.

Those wishing to obtain a loan from this fund should apply to the President of the College.

STATE LOAN FUND

The college has a loan fund, which has been appropriated by the State. Not more than $150.00 per session is loaned to any one student. The interest required is four per cent, and all notes must be properly endorsed.

Application for assistance from the State Loan Fund should be addressed to the President of the College.

MU OMEGA LOAN FUND

This fund was established in 1930 by the Mu Omega Sorority for the purpose of helping students who need financial assistance in order to pursue their college course. A five per cent interest is charged on these loans and the fund is administered by the President of the College.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA LOAN FUND

This fund was established in 1931 by Alpha Phi Sigma Fraternity. Loans are made at five per cent interest to students who need financial assistance in their college course. The fund is administered by the President of the College.

DISCIPLINE

In the conduct of a college for young women about to assume the responsibility of a serious and dignified profession like teaching there is little occasion for arbitrary iron-clad discipline. Beyond the expectation that the life of our students shall conform to the requirements of promptness and fidelity to duty and exhibit that gentle demeanor and considerate regard for others which characterize refined womanhood we have few fixed rules. This does not mean, however, that the students are absolutely without restrictions. It is the duty of the head of the home and her assistants to keep in close contact with the daily life and conduct of the students, and to provide suitable chaperonage whenever necessary. If the student is found to be falling off in her studies, neglecting duty, or exerting an unwholesome influence, prompt steps are taken for her amendment. A young woman who does not show some disposition to conform to high standards can hardly be considered good material for a teacher; so, if one is found unresponsive to patient endeavors to bring her to the line of duty, her connection with the school is quietly severed by virtue of the following order of the trustees: "If, in the judgment of the President, it shall at any time appear that a student is not making proper use of the advantages which the State offers in the State Teachers College, or that her influence is in any way prejudicial to the interests of the institution, or of her fellow-students, it shall be his duty to declare her place vacant."

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the association is to preserve the student honor and to further the interests of the college as far as lies within its power. It has jurisdiction over the girls during study period and in the dining-room, and in all cases in which the good name of the student body as a whole would be involved.

Decisions rendered by the Student Government Committee are subject to the approval of the President.

RELIGIOUS LIFE OF THE COLLEGE

Although a State institution, and hence not under denominational influence, this college realizes the importance of a life higher than the intellectual, and the religious interests of the students are a matter of constant concern. There is a daily chapel exercise, with the reading of the Scriptures, a hymn and prayer. The ministers of the several denominations of the town take part in conducting these services.

Through the Young Women's Christian Association, Bible Study classes are organized in each church. These classes are taught by members of the faculty, who, together with the ministers and the Sunday School superintendents, plan and outline courses of study suitable for the different groups of girls. While attendance on church services is not compulsory, every girl is urged to join the Sunday School of her choice and to attend church regularly.

The college endeavors to maintain high moral and Christian standards, and to create an atmosphere of earnestness, that it may send out young women equipped with a steady purpose to perform well and faithfully the duties that lie before them—a holy purpose to make the most of themselves, that they may do most for others.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

The Young Women's Christian Association of the State Teachers College at Farmville, Virginia, affirming the Christian faith in God, the Father, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord and Saviour; and in the Holy Spirit, the Revealer of truth and source of power for life and service, according to the teaching of Holy Scripture and the witness of the church, declares its purposes to be:

1. To lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ.
2. To lead them into membership and service in the Christian Church.
3. To promote their growth in Christian faith and character especially through the study of the Bible.
4. To influence them to devote themselves in united efforts with all Christians to making the will of Christ effective in human society, and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world.

Every girl is cordially invited to become a member of the Young Women's Christian Association and to help it to realize its purpose through her hearty support of its activities. All officers and committees have as their sole aim the furthering of the purpose of the Association as given above. The activities themselves are in charge of student members. The Association conducts daily evening prayer services, holds special weekly Morning Watch services, urges attendance at Sunday School and church, and fosters a spirit of religious life and service. Some special features of the work are: the observance of the World Week of Prayer; the holding of Mission Study Classes for six weeks conducted by the faculty, or selected speakers; the bringing to school of a noted speaker each year to give a series of addresses on the Fundamental Principles of the Christian Religion; the bringing of other noted speakers who give an international viewpoint to leading movements and foster a spirit of world fellowship among girls.

The activities of the whole Association are numerous and varied enough to give every girl an opportunity to aid in some part of the Christian work which will help her to realize the more "abundant life," and will enable her to grow "into the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ."

THE ASSOCIATION OF ALUMNAE

The Association of Alumnae includes all persons who have completed three quarters of professional work in the college. Graduates are active members, non-graduates are associate members. Regular annual meetings are held at the college on Founders' Day. The annual membership fee is one dollar.

Through the Association former students are kept in touch with the college and with each other, and loyalty is fostered by interest and service. Some of the work attempted is the holding of reunions at convenient times, as at State and district teachers' meetings; the dissemination of college news of interest and importance by means of circular letters and the newspaper, The Rotunda; the aiding of students by loans from Normal League and Cunningham Memorial Loan Funds; the organization of local chapters in many cities and counties to strengthen and render more effective the activities of the General Association and special service to the college as opportunity arises.

The chief interest of the Alumnae at present is the completion of the fund for the Student Building, which houses student organizations, the physical education department, and is of use to the college in many ways.

The officers for 1931-32 are:

President—Miss Carrie B. Taliaferro, Farmville, Va.

First Vice-President—Miss Lillian Minor, Norfolk, Va.

Second Vice-President—Miss Mabel Grossclose, Dinwiddie, Va.

Secretary-Treasurer—Miss Mary Nichols, Farmville, Va.

Directors—Miss Mary White Cox, Farmville, Va.; Miss Lucille Graves, Roanoke, Va.

LIBRARY AND READING ROOM

The students are supplied with collateral reading, reference work, and recreative reading from a library of 22,526 classified volumes, reference rooms containing encyclopedias, dictionaries, bound volumes of the leading magazines, and atlases, and a reading room supplied with newspapers of the State, and from large cities outside of the State, besides many well-selected departmental and popular periodicals.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

There are two literary societies, the Cunningham and the Ruffner. These are an important factor in the intellectual and social life of the college. They impart a strong impulse to literary work, and bring the girls together at regular times for a common intellectual purpose. The literary societies aim primarily to promote a real interest in literature and to afford opportunities for self-expression to the members.

DEBATE CLUB

The purpose of the Debate Club is to develop the powers of argument, clear and logical thinking, and forceful expression. Regular club meetings are held every two weeks during the session, at which matters of local and college interest are debated by the members. One public debate is held each term at which some phase of college activity is discussed and to which all the college is invited, and several inter-collegiate debates are held each year. This provides for training in thinking on one's feet and for public recognition of successful club work.

KAPPA DELTA PI (NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY IN EDUCATION) BETA EPSILON CHAPTER

This society was organized as the local honor society of Pi Kappa Omega in 1918, and was merged with the national honor society of Kappa Delta Pi in 1928. It was organized as the result of a need felt by faculty and students for an organization in recognition of scholarship, character and service. The society proposes, not only to recognize and encourage such qualities, but also to contribute by definite forms of service to the intellectual and social life of the college. The standards for admission are high, and students are not eligible to membership until they have attained full junior standing. There are two kinds of membership: active and honorary.

ALPHA KAPPA GAMMA (NATIONAL HONOR FRATERNITY FOR LEADERSHIP)

Charter Member, Organized 1928

The Joan Circle of Alpha Kappa Gamma (formerly Alpha Delta Rho, local, organized in 1925) was organized to bring together a group of representative students and members of the faculty, whose purpose is to foster high ideals and high standards of leadership among the students of the college and to help in the solution of college problems through the promotion of desirable co-ordination of various interests, activities, and organizations.

ALPHA PHI SIGMA (NATIONAL HONOR FRATERNITY FOR SCHOLARSHIP)

Alpha Phi Sigma was founded February 26, 1930, at the Northeast Missouri State Teachers College, Kirksville, Missouri. Delta Chapter, at Farmville, was established June 3, 1930, with seventy-five charter members.

Alpha Phi Sigma is confined to A Class Teachers Colleges and its ideal is the developing and carrying on of high scholarship.

Salutatorians and valedictorians of high schools are automatically eligible for membership; and if high school principals will send to the college the names of their honor graduates, a certificate of membership will be issued, to be delivered at graduation along with their diplomas, and they will be members of Alpha Phi Sigma upon matriculation in any college where there is a chapter.

Students in college who make a high scholarship record are also eligible for membership in the fraternity.

PI GAMMA MU (NATIONAL SOCIAL SCIENCE HONOR SOCIETY)

The Virginia Gamma chapter of Pi Gamma Mu was organized in 1927 as a branch of the National Social Science Honor Society to further the scientific study of the problems of social science. In addition to a high standard of general scholarship required for entrance each member must show an outstanding interest in the social sciences and must carry on while a member of the society a piece of original work in some of the social sciences.

SIGMA PI RHO (NATIONAL LATIN HONOR SOCIETY)

Sigma Pi Rho was established at Farmville, in 1930. Its purpose is to give recognition to those who have shown a deep interest in the field of Latin, and have attained a certain scholastic standing; to afford them further opportunities in the work; and to try to create in others an interest in Latin.

BETA PI THETA (NATIONAL FRENCH HONOR SOCIETY)

Pi Zeta Chapter was established at Farmville in May, 1930.

The purpose of Beta Pi Theta is to organize representative men and women in universities and colleges who will advance the progress of literary French; who will maintain a high standard of scholarship; who will encourage individual effort to social service and the highest ideals of a liberal education; and who will recognize and award merit in productive French literature. In order to be eligible, in addition to a high standard of scholarship in French, students must also attain a high standard of general scholarship. Students are not eligible for membership until they have full junior standing.

PI KAPPA DELTA (NATIONAL FORENSIC HONOR SOCIETY)

Pi Kappa Delta is the largest of three honor societies in forensics. The Virginia Alpha chapter was chartered in 1928 and is one of 130 chapters in the United States. Its purpose is to develop and maintain a high standard of skill and sportsmanship in debate and oratory.

THE JOSEPH E. JOHNSTON HISTORICAL PRIZE

A prize consisting of a set of books is awarded at Commencement to the member of the Junior or Senior Class who has written the best paper on some phase of the life and service of General Joseph E. Johnston, whose birthplace, Longwood, now forms a part of the college estate.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The Rotunda is a weekly newspaper published by the students. The editorial staff is composed of students and alumnae, who are assisted by reporters from the various classes and school organizations. The paper aims, by publishing news of the college, to keep the students, the faculty, and the alumnae informed as to what is going on, and so, to draw them closer together. It affords valuable experience in journalistic work to those who participate in its publication.

The Virginian is an annual publication which is edited and published by the student body.

The Voice is a quarterly literary magazine which began publication under the auspices of the literary societies in 1928-1929.

COURSES AND CERTIFICATES

This college offers three courses, all leading to the degree of B.S. in Education. Course I prepares for teaching in the kindergarten and lower elementary grades through the third. Course II, for teaching in the upper elementary, beginning with the fourth. Course III, for teaching in the high school.

Courses I and II are so arranged that a diploma is given for the completion of the first two years, and a degree for all four.

In Course III no diploma is given.

Any former student having the full diploma of the college, representing two years of professional work based on sixteen units of high-school work, may take the third and fourth years of the course in which she received her diploma, and receive the B.S. in Education.

The following certificates are given by the Department of Public Instruction for the completion of these courses, as follows:

1. Collegiate Professional Certificate. The degree of B.S. in Education entitles the holder to the Collegiate Professional Certificate given by the Department of Public Instruction. This certificate is valid for ten years, and renewable for ten, and permits its holder to teach in the high schools or the elementary schools.

2. Normal Professional Certificate. The diploma of the college entitles the holder to a Normal Professional Certificate given by the Department of Public Instruction. This certificate is valid for five years, and renewable for five, and permits its holder to teach in the elementary schools.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS AND CLASSIFICATION

The following are the general regulations governing entrance and classification:

Graduates of accredited four-year high schools may enter any course. Upon the completion of two years in Courses I or II, they may receive the diploma, and upon completion of four years in Courses I, II, or III, they receive the Degree of Bachelor of Science in Education.

All candidates for admission must file with the registrar, not later than September 1, their certificates of graduation from the high school, on blanks furnished by her. If student is applying for advanced standing, her honorable dismissal and record from the college she has attended must also be filed by this time. These blanks must come from some recognized institution or accredited school, must be made out by some member of the faculty, and must bear the signature of the head of the school from which they come. They must be sent directly to the Registrar, and not through the hands of the candidates in question.

Students coming from other than accredited four-year high schools are not eligible for entrance except upon passing the College Entrance Examinations prepared by the State for such students.

No credit is given for courses completed at other than standard colleges.

Students who re-enter college after an absence of a year or more will be expected to conform to the requirements of the later catalogue—not of that under which they first entered.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE B.S. DEGREE

The B.S. degree in Education requires a total of 192 quarter hours, or 64 session hours. These must be so chosen as to include the following constant:

English	18 quarter hours
Education and Supervised Teaching....	45 quarter hours
Social Sciences	18 quarter hours
Physical or Natural Sciences.....	9 quarter hours
Health and Physical Education.....	9 quarter hours

This constant is taken care of in the outlines as tabulated on pages 41 to 46 with one exception—students not choosing their major or minor in History or Geography must take as electives some time during their course the eighteen hours required in Social Science.

Each candidate for a degree in Course III selects at the beginning of her first year a major and a minor subject. The major may be selected from the following departments: Biology, Chemistry and Physics, English, History and Social Sciences, Home Economics, Latin, Mathematics, Modern Languages, and Music. The minor may be selected from the same group or from Fine and Applied Arts, Geography, or Physical and Health Education.

Students taking their degree in Courses I and II do not choose a major and minor when they enter, as the work of the first two years in these courses is prescribed; upon the completion of the full course they are specialized primary or grammar grade teachers with the degree of B.S. in Education.

The student in Course III is free to choose any major for which she has the required prerequisites. The minor is subject to the approval of the head of the department in which she is doing her major work.

An average of C on the four years of work is required of all candidates for the degree.

In addition to the above requirements, students who expect to do their graduate work at the University of Virginia should be sure of having one year of mathematics and two years of a modern language in college.

The number of quarter hours required for a major or a minor in the various departments is listed in the departments.

The residence requirement is one year beyond the Second Year.

REQUIREMENTS FOR TEACHING IN THE TRAINING SCHOOLS

1. In Courses I and II no student is eligible to begin her teaching until she has completed at least one year of college work—sixteen session hours, or forty-eight credits.

2. In Course III a student, to begin her teaching, must have an average of at least C on her major subject and on her minor subject.

Temperamental and physical unfitness should sometimes debar a student from attempting to teach. But such students may, in the judgment of the faculty, be allowed to remain in college, taking academic subjects only.

RECORD OF STUDENTS

A record of each student's work is kept in the Registrar's office.

Reports from the various members of the Faculty are handed in every two weeks, and every student who is not making a passing grade at that time is notified.

At the close of each quarter, reports for the term are sent to parents or guardians.

The work of students is graded as follows: A, B, C, D, E, I, and F. D is the lowest passing grade, E denotes a "condition;" I, incomplete work; F, a failure.

A student who fails on 50% or more of her work the first quarter is put on probation the second quarter, and must make at least an average of D on all of her work the first year in order to be permitted to enter college for the second year. Anyone desiring to re-enter may have her case re-opened if, in the judgment of the administration, this is justified.

To be placed on the Honor Roll a student must make a grade of A or B on at least three-fourths of her work for the quarter; must have no failures, no conditions, no unexcused absences from class or Chapel, and no reports from the Home Department or Student Government.

EXPLANATION OF NUMBERS AND CREDITS

In general all First-Year courses are numbered in the one hundred group, all Second-Year courses in the two hundred group, all Third-Year courses in the three hundred group, and all Fourth-Year courses in the four hundred group. However, all First and Second-Year work is interchangeable and all Third and Fourth-Year work is interchangeable. Third and Fourth-Year students are not permitted to take more than six courses numbered below three hundred.

The credit hour is the "quarter hour" representing one hour a week extending through a quarter. It is equal to one-third of the standard "session hour" and represents one of the following combinations or the equivalent:

1. One recitation or lecture hour per week extending through the quarter and requiring one and one-half or two hours' preparation.

2. A two-hour laboratory period extending through the quarter and requiring one hour's outside work or preparation.

In the tabulated course of study, page 41, the figures in the columns show the schedule hours, which are also credit hours, unless otherwise stated; for example, a class scheduled to meet three times a week for a quarter, receives three credits or one session hour.

Some exceptions to this rule are made either because the nature of the work requires less preparation than the standard, as is the case in Physical Education, or because, in order to meet the professional demands of elementary subject matter, the student has to do work not of college grade as is the case in Arithmetic. These exceptions are noted in the tabulated list, page 41, and also in the departmental statements.

INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC

No instrumental music is taught in the college except as preparation for orchestra work. Students desiring piano lessons can get them from private teachers in the town.

Departments of Instruction

BIOLOGY

DR. JEFFERS, DR. STEVENS AND ASSISTANTS

The work of this department is planned to prepare teachers of Biology for the high schools of the State; the first year aims to give a foundation for Psychology and Health Education.

Students intending to major in Biology are advised to minor in either Chemistry or Mathematics. Because Biology teachers are frequently called upon to teach General Science, students not choosing Chemistry as a minor are urged to elect General Chemistry and General Physics early in their college course.

A major in this department requires the following courses: Biology 131, 132, 133, 231, 232, 233, 333, 334, 335, and 331.

A minor requires Biology 131, 132, 133 and either 231, 232, 233, or 333, 334, 335.

In all courses in the biological department except those of the first year the number of laboratory hours indicated should be regarded as minimal, since students may frequently find it necessary to give more than the required time in order to complete the assigned work. Laboratory fees must be paid at the Treasurer's Office before entering classes.

BIOLOGY 131, 132, 133. General Biology. Three periods a week, two single, one double. Credit, three hours each quarter.

BIOLOGY 131—Elementary Zoology. Fall quarter. An introductory course, including the general principles of biology and a survey of the animal kingdom.

BIOLOGY 132—Human Biology. Winter quarter.

Prehistoric man, the structure and functions of the various systems of the human body as a basis for courses in psychology.

BIOLOGY 133—Elementary Botany. Spring quarter.

A general survey of the plant kingdom, together with the more essential features of classification, structure, and reproduction of plants.

LABORATORY FEE: One dollar each quarter.

BIOLOGY 231, 232, 233. Botany. Four periods a week, two single, two double. Credit, four hours each quarter.

BIOLOGY 231—Plant Morphology. Fall quarter.
A study of type forms of cryptogamic plants.

BIOLOGY 232—Plant Physiology. Winter quarter.
A study of nutrition, assimilation, metabolism and growth of plants.

BIOLOGY 233—Seed Plants. Spring quarter.
A study of the morphology and classification of seed plants.
Elective in Course III. Prerequisite: Biology 131, 132, 133.
LABORATORY FEE: Three dollars each quarter.

BIOLOGY 300—Laboratory Methods. One double period a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, one hour.

A practical course in the making of simple slides, charts and other laboratory techniques necessary in teaching high school biology.

Open to a few qualified students, subject to the approval of the instructor.

LABORATORY FEE: Two dollars.

BIOLOGY 333, 334, 335. Zoology. Four periods a week, two single, two double. Credit, four hours each quarter.

BIOLOGY 333—Invertebrate Zoology. Fall quarter.
A type study of the more important groups of the invertebrates.

BIOLOGY 334—Vertebrate Zoology. Winter quarter.
Continues, but does not presuppose, Biology 333.

BIOLOGY 335—Systematic Zoology. Spring quarter.
The identification, classification and economic importance of animals.

Elective in Course III. Prerequisite: Biology 131, 132, 133.
LABORATORY FEE: Three dollars each quarter.

BIOLOGY 331—Methods in Biology. Three periods a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours.

The construction of the course of study, a study of the methods to be used in teaching biology as applied to the recitation, laboratory, demonstration and field work.

Required of all students majoring in biology.

BIOLOGY 346, 347, 348. Advanced General Biology. Four periods a week, two single, two double. Fall, winter and spring quarters. Credit, four hours each quarter.

A course similar in scope to Biology 131, 132, 133, but adapted to advanced students.

LABORATORY FEE: Three dollars each quarter.

BIOLOGY 351. Human Physiology. Three periods a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A course covering the main facts and more important advances in human physiology together with personal applications. Open to students who have had one year of Biology in College.

BIOLOGY 352. Sanitation. Three periods a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of community hygiene, water supply, food supply, immunity and disease. Open to students who have had one year of Biology in College.

BIOLOGY 353. Genetics. Three periods a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. An elementary course dealing with the principles of heredity and their application to evolution and eugenics. Open to students who have had one year of Biology in College.

CHEMISTRY AND PHYSICS

MR. MCCORKLE, MR. FRENCH

The aim of this department is to give the students some knowledge of the facts of modern science and to prepare them to teach Chemistry and Physics in the high schools of the State.

A major in this department requires the following courses: Chemistry 131, 132, 133, 200, 201, 202, 300, 301, 302 or 303, and 331.

A minor in Chemistry: six courses of Chemistry with laboratory.

A minor in Science: three courses of Chemistry with laboratory work, and three courses of Physics.

A fee of $4.00 each quarter is charged all students taking laboratory work in Chemistry or Physics and must be paid before enrolling for such course.

CHEMISTRY 131, 132, 133. General Chemistry. Four periods a week. Fall, winter and spring quarters, two single and two double each quarter. Credit, four hours each quarter. A course for beginners in college chemistry, including the history, preparation, properties, and uses of the more important elements with their compounds, and the theories underlying their reactions. The laboratory work of Chemistry 133 is a study of the metals from the viewpoint of qualitative analysis. Elective in First Year or Second Year of Course III.

CHEMISTRY 200, 201, 202. Organic Chemistry. Two single and two double periods a week. Fall, winter, and spring quarters. Credit, four hours each quarter. The class work gives an elementary knowledge of the more important aliphatic and aromatic compounds. The laboratory work gives practice in the preparation of typical compounds of these series with a study of their characteristics.

CHEMISTRY 203. History of Chemistry. Three periods a week. Credit, three hours. Beginnings of science, philosophy of the ancients, views and aims of the alchemists, iatrochemistry, phlogiston period, modern period. The development of chemical theory with biographical studies of the leaders and the characteristics of each period. Lectures and assigned readings of source, reprints, etc. Prerequisite, Chemistry 133.

CHEMISTRY 300. Quantitative Analysis (Volumetric). Four double periods a week. Credit, four hours. Experiments illustrating typical methods and principles of volumetric analysis. Individual or group conferences with the instructor.

CHEMISTRY 301, 302. Quantitative Analysis (Applied). Four double periods a week. Credit, four hours each quarter. Open to students who have had Chemistry 300, and arranged to suit the needs of the student in so far as laboratory equipment will permit.

CHEMISTRY 303. Qualitative Analysis. Four double periods a week. Spring quarter. Credit, four hours. A study of the theory of solution and equilibrium from the viewpoint of chemical analysis, and the analysis of unknown materials. Elective.

CHEMISTRY 331. The Teaching of High School Chemistry. Three periods a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the aims, purposes, and methods in the teaching of secondary chemistry, together with the problems of laboratory management, and library reference work.

CHEMISTRY 341, 342, 343. General Chemistry. Four periods a week, two single and two double. Fall, winter and spring quarters. Credit, four hours each quarter. This course covers the same general topics as Chemistry 131, 132, and 133, but adapted to advanced students.

PHYSICS 241, 242, 243. General Physics. Four periods a week, two single and two double. Fall, winter and spring quarters. Credit, four hours each quarter. Mechanics, molecular physics, heat, magnetism, electricity, sound, and light. Class work illustrated by experiments. Individual laboratory work.

EDUCATION

DR. WYNNE, MR. BELL, MISS CAMPER, MISS CARTER, MR. COYNER,
MISS HAYNES, MR. HOLTON, MISS JONES, MISS MIX,
MISS PIERCE

The supervisors of the Campus Training School and the rural training schools are also members of the Department of Education.

The Scope of the Department. In addition to the instructors in education in the college, the faculty of the Department of Education includes the supervisors of the Campus Training School and the supervisors in the five rural training schools. The Campus Training School is not only an integral part of the college but is the center around which the courses in education have developed. The increase in the enrollment of the college and the demonstrated efficiency of student teaching under the direction of expert supervision have led to an agreement between the college and the public school officials of Prince Edward, Cumberland, and Buckingham counties whereby a large part of the teaching in the schools of John Randolph, Worsham, Curdsville, Rice, and Cumberland is done by students of State Teachers College, under the guidance of supervisors selected on the basis of successful experience and special training for this particular sort of work.

Education Courses and Teaching. Preparation for teaching is regarded as a gradual growth in the understanding and control of the various elements that enter into the learning-teaching process. The basis for the understanding and control in this process is the experience of the young teacher as a student. Consequently, the aim in general is the development of the teacher through having her live the life of a teacher in so far as possible. The courses in education and the work in the training schools proceed simultaneously in such a way as to enable the student to do better teaching in consequence of her classroom work in the college, and also to enable her to gain, through her teaching, a basis in experience for fuller appreciation of her professional and academic courses. In order to safeguard the interest of the pupils in the training schools and to prevent embarrassment and nervousness on the part of the beginning teacher courses in education are so arranged that the student is gradually led into the work of full responsibility in teaching. In order to make the courses in education meet the requirements of the training schools and the various forms of public school service, differentiated and specialized courses are offered in three fields: lower elementary, upper elementary, and secondary schools. Courses in the history of education, psychology, and philosophy enable the student to gain a perspective not provided in the more specialized courses.

Courses in Rural Education. The demand for teachers definitely qualified for work in rural schools is recognized in the Department of Education. The rural training schools and adequate transportation facilities make it possible to give the same degree of experience in the participation in rural school work as is given in the Campus Training School.

Required Courses. The curricula of the college are designated as Course I, Course II, and Course III. The required courses in the Department of Education are as follows:

Diploma in Course I. Education 101, 115, 216, 121, 122, 223, 200, 202, required of all students.

Education 211 open to all students teaching in the first grade in the Campus Training School.

Diploma in Course II. Education 101, 121, 122, 200, 202, 223 required of all students.

Degree in Course I and Course II. All courses listed above as requirements for diploma and Education 341, 345, 441, 461, 462, 463.

Degree in Course III. Education 231, 232, 233, 334, 341, 345, 400, 435, 441, 444.

EDUCATION 101. Educational Psychology. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Required in Courses I and II.

General survey of the field of psychology as applied to education with special reference to teaching in the elementary school. The nature and development of human traits considered at various levels, including observation, memory, reasoning, and feeling. Some attention to questions of personality, individual differences, and the measurement of intelligence.

EDUCATION 121. Professional Ethics and Management. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Required in Courses I and II.

A study of teaching as a profession, including the pupil relationship, public relationship, relationship to members of the profession, and personal improvement; management, including such topics as records, marks, classification, discipline, physical condition of room, arrangement of equipment, and allied activities. Class discussions based on observations in the training schools, text books, and reference materials.

EDUCATION 122. Curriculum and Participation. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Required in Courses I and II.

A study of the essential features of the curriculum and the course of study. An analysis of teaching units, development of criteria for their selection, and the organization of a few large undertakings to be used during practice teaching in the subsequent quarter. Three to four weeks in participation in and gradual assumption of teaching responsibility under the direct guidance of the supervisor under whom the student is to teach in the subsequent quarter.

EDUCATION 223. General Method. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Required in Courses I and II.

The development and application of principles of general method. Comparison of various authoritative formulations of method. Evaluation of student's own teaching during the same quarter on the basis of principles of method accepted as valid. Materials of text books, descriptions of teaching, and references used as basis of class discussion.

EDUCATION 115. The Teaching of Reading and Language in the Lower Primary Stages. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Required in Course I.

A consideration of how children learn to talk under stimulus of environment in pre-school age. Continuation of the same natural method by integration of language with school activities wherever needed. Creative language as the approach to reading. Laws of learning as guides to procedure. Methods in pre-primer, primer and first reader stages. Observation and discussion of lessons taught by experts.

EDUCATION 216. The Teaching of Reading and Language in the Primary Grades.

Mastery of mechanical difficulties. Phonics as an aid in independent recognition. Cultivation of reading interests. Development of power to get thought. Materials suitable for these grades. Methods of procedure. Standard and informal tests with reference to achievement, diagnosis, and remedial work.

The teaching of the related subjects of oral and written composition and spelling. Integration with all activities as needed. Observation and discussion of lessons taught by experts.

EDUCATION 200. Directed Teaching. Twelve hours a week. A Group in fall quarter, B Group in winter quarter, and C Group in spring quarter. Credit, twelve hours. Open to students of Courses I and II who meet the academic requirements for admission to teaching. Required for the Diploma.

Supervised teaching in the Campus Training School or in one of the rural training schools.

EDUCATION 202. Psychology of Learning. Three hours a week. Winter and spring quarters. Credit, three hours. Required in Courses I and II.

Problems of learning with special reference to pupils in the elementary grades given a more intensive study. The different phases or types of learning reviewed; the problems of transference of training and the physical and psychological conditions of learning considered; the principles and laws of learning that have general application developed; and the measurements of ability and accomplishment in the elementary school subjects given some attention.

EDUCATION 211. Kindergarten Teaching. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Open to all students who teach in the first grade in the Campus Training School.

Supervised teaching experience with children of the pre-school age, from four to six years.

EDUCATION 231. Educational Psychology. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Required in Course III.

Subject matter and methods of psychology; the psychological, physical, and social factors involved in experiencing; the nature and development of human traits; special application of facts and principles to the activities of pupils of high-school age.

EDUCATION 232. Psychology of Learning. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Required in Course III.

Analysis of the learning process in different fields; comparative results of different methods of learning; effects of conditioning factors on accomplishments; transference of training; general laws of learning; special application of principles in the field of secondary education.

EDUCATION 233. Curriculum and Organization in the Secondary School. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours.

Analysis of instruction through observation in the training schools. Formulation of curriculum objectives in the major and minor subjects of individual students. Elaboration of cardinal principles of secondary education. Employment of cardinal principles in the evaluation of current practices in secondary education in Virginia with special reference to school organization, curriculum, allied activities, and vocational guidance. Conferences with supervisors and class discussion with instructor.

EDUCATION 334. Curriculum and Participation in the Secondary School. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Prerequisite, Education 233.

Development of tentative principles of teaching; continued evaluation of instruction observed in the training schools on the basis of principles, objectives of subjects formulated in the preceding quarter, materials listed in special method courses; gradual assumption of teaching duties; organization of units of work suggestive of procedure to be followed in subsequent teaching; observation in training schools, conferences with supervisors, and class discussion.

EDUCATION 341. Psychology of Individual Differences. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Required of all Third Year students. Prerequisite, two quarters of Psychology or Junior standing.

ENGLISH

MR. GRAINGER, MISS HINER, MISS W. LONDON, MISS BARNES, MISS FOSTER, MISS JENNINGS, MRS. TAYLOR,
MISS NICHOLS

The work of the English Department includes courses in composition and literature. Those in composition aim to give the needed practical training in the correct and effective use of the everyday forms of oral and written discourse, especially with reference to the needs of teachers. The courses in literature aim to increase the student's knowledge, appreciation, and enjoyment of good reading for the worthy use of leisure and as an influence in the growth of character. Further improvement of each student's equipment for teaching is accomplished by acquainting her with the best literature for children, and by courses in methods of teaching English in its various branches in the grades and high school. The attempt is made constantly to suit the work to the actual needs and working possibilities of the student, and to her prospective needs in teaching. The English Department seeks the active co-operation of all teachers in the college in making its work effective.

For graduation the following courses in English are required:
Course I—English 101, 102, 103, 116, and 217.

Course II—English 101, 102, 103, 227, and 228.

Course III—English 101, 102, 103, and 205, and two other courses chosen from those offered in the First or Second Year.

A major in English (in Course III) requires the following courses:

English 101, 102, 103, 205, 131, 132, 133, 234, 235, 236, 331, 332, 441, 442 or 443, and three additional courses selected from those numbered in the three- or four-hundreds.

A minor in English requires the first ten courses listed in the major requirement.

For students in Course III who are looking forward to the possibility of teaching in the upper elementary grades English 227 and 228 are also recommended as electives.

A degree of B.S. in Education, taken after completing Course I or II, requires one year of additional work in English, chosen from courses open to Third and Fourth Year students.

ENGLISH 101. Composition. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Practical work to enable the students to talk and write effectively, in the forms most needed by teachers. The emphasis is on oral English. Three hours of the time scheduled for this class are given to a study of the use of the library. Required in all courses.

PREREQUISITE: The passing of entrance tests in English. See English 91.

ENGLISH 102. Composition. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A continuation of English 101. Emphasis on writing, with review of English grammar for corrective and teaching purposes. Required in all courses.

ENGLISH 103. Literature. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. A course, introduced by Smith's What Can Literature Do for Me, consisting of general reading in such literature as every teacher should know, with intensive study of selected masterpieces, and the planning of individual courses for future reading. Supplementary work in composition as needed. Required in all courses.

ENGLISH 91. Special English. Two hours a week. Fall quarter. No credit. A course providing intensive drill and practice in oral and written composition suited to the needs of the students. Required in addition to English 101 for all entering freshmen who fail to pass the preliminary test in English.

ENGLISH 116. Child Literature. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, two hours. A survey of literature for children. Analysis and selection of types of literature suitable for children in kindergarten and primary grades. Special emphasis on choice and presentation of poetry. Methods and practice in story-telling. Adaptation and dramatization of stories. Required in Course I.

ENGLISH 131, 132, 133. American Literature. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. A survey with wide readings to trace the development of American ideals: Fall quarter (English 132), a survey of American literature to 1865; Winter quarter (English 131), Southern literature; Spring quarter (English 133), American literature since 1865. Open to First Year students.

ENGLISH 205. Advanced Composition. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Training in the kinds of writing and speaking which teachers need as leaders in school and community life. Required in Course III.

PREREQUISITE: English 101 and 102.

ENGLISH 217. Advanced Composition. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. Advanced work in oral and written composition based on the study of the principles underlying the teaching of language and their applications in the primary grades. Required in Course I.

PREREQUISITE: English 101 and 102.

ENGLISH 227. Juvenile Literature. Three hours a week. Offered Fall and Winter quarters. Credit, three hours. A survey of literature suitable for youthful readers, including periodicals. Selection and analysis of literature, with suggestions for leading young people to love books and profit by reading them. Required in Second Year of Course II.

ENGLISH 228. Advanced Composition. Three hours a week. Offered winter and spring quarters. Credit, three hours. Advanced work in oral and written exposition, based on the study of the principles underlying the teaching of grammar and language work and their applications in the grammar grades. Required in Second Year of Course II.

PREREQUISITE: English 101 and 102.

ENGLISH 234, 235, 236. English Literature. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. A study and survey of British national ideals in literature as bearing on modern life, especially among English-speaking peoples. Fall quarter (English 234), the Romantic Period; winter quarter (English 235), the Victorian Era; spring quarter (English 236), a chronological survey of the main periods, chief aspects, and great writers down to the eighteenth century. Open to Second Year students.

Spring quarter (Fine Art 443)—Pictures. Elective for Third and Fourth Year students of any course. Students may enter at the beginning of any quarter. Each student pays a dollar for use of texts and buys about a hundred pictures.

APPLIED ART. Handwriting. The work in handwriting aims—first, to make good writers, and second, to prepare students for efficient teaching of handwriting. Direct, specific, tested methods of teaching, coupled with the ability to write well, can alone produce the desired results. The muscular movement method, adopted by the State Board of Education for use in the schools of the State, is taught in this course.

APPLIED ART 101. Handwriting. Two periods a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, one hour. Definite instruction in posture, movement, the handling of material, and the mechanics of writing. Required of all students entering Courses I and II, who do not present a certificate of proficiency in writing. Students who show a certain proficiency in writing may be excused at the discretion of the instructor at any time during either term, but may be required to return to the writing class if they show poor writing in other classes.

APPLIED ART 102. Handwriting. One hour a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, one hour.

The course deals with the scientific development of modern handwriting, including organization, psychology, and philosophy; with the adaptation of methods to the physical and mental development of the child; the technique of class instruction; standard tests, measuring the results with the scales of Locker, Freeman, and Ayres; and consideration of the means of maintaining the standard in all written work.

GEOGRAPHY

MISS MORAN, MISS WATERS

The aim of this department is threefold; to train the student to observe closely and accurately the world in which we live, to note the forces at work moulding its surface and fitting it to be the home of man, to reason accurately upon the phenomena presented by observation, and to express clearly and concisely the conclusions at which she may arrive; to lead her to wider sympathies and broader views through the study of the races of mankind, their homes, industries, habits, and general responses to physical environments; to prepare her to teach geography in the public schools.

A minor in this department requires seven courses selected from those open to students in Course III. Geography 131, 132, and 331 are required.

GEOGRAPHY 111. Geography of Type Environments. Nature Study. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours (geography, two; nature study, one). A study of the life of peoples in varied type regions, with the idea of showing how natural environmental factors help to determine human activities as exemplified in the Belgian Congo, the Nile Valley, Arabia, the Tigris-Euphrates Valley, and the Kirghiz Steppes. College texts paralleled by materials used in lower grades.

Fall nature experiences, with emphasis upon common trees, birds, insects and flowers. Work in the field by both group and individual supplemented by library readings. Required in Course I.

GEOGRAPHY 112. Geography of Type Environment. Nature Study. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours (geography, two; nature study, one). A continuation of Geography 111. Life activities in the Mediterranean Lands, Switzerland, the Netherlands, Norway, France and Tundra. Each student required to develop units of work on the Eskimo, the Indian, and the Japanese.

Winter nature experiences with deciduous trees, conifers, winter bird residents; problems of maintaining a balanced aquarium and caring for pets and indoor gardens; weather charts; changes in position of rising, setting and noon-day sun recorded.

Library readings on economic value of trees, birds, domestic and wild animals and poultry. Required in Course I.

GEOGRAPHY 113. Unit Work in Social Studies. Nature Study. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours (geography, two; nature study, one). A study of industries dealing with our food, clothing and shelter, emphasizing the controlling factors in their production; means of transportation and communication. Subject matter organized for unit teaching. College texts paralleled by materials available for the primary grades.

Spring experiences with transient and summer resident birds, trees, flowering plants, insects, frogs; problems of restocking aquarium and indoor gardens. Frequent field trips supplemented by library readings. Required in Course I.

GEOGRAPHY 121. The Principles of Geography. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A brief study of the earth's surface features and the agencies which modify them; the fundamental principles underlying climate; the chief types of climate, their characteristics and distribution. Principles developed through a study of human activities in varied regions which best illustrate man's adjustment to his natural environment. Required in Course II.

GEOGRAPHY 122. Geography of the Americas. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the economic and commercial activities of man in the major regions of North and South America, as modified and affected by the natural environment. Subject matter presented with the idea of giving the student a definite background of knowledge for teaching in the upper elementary grades. While texts of a college grade are required, every effort is made to familiarize the student with the basal and supplemental texts and materials she will need to know when she begins active work as a teacher. Required in Course II.

GEOGRAPHY 123. Geography of the Eastern Hemisphere. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the economic and commercial activities of man in the eastern hemisphere with the emphasis upon The British Empire, Northwestern Europe, The Mediterranean Lands, China, and Japan. The point of view in this course is the same as that in Geography 122. Required in Course II.

GEOGRAPHY 131. Geography of the Lands. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the earth's surface features, their origin, and the agencies which modify them. Relationships are noted between the cultural and the natural landscapes in different types of regions in the United States. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

GEOGRAPHY 132. Climates of the World. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the fundamental principles underlying climate, the chief types of climate, their characteristics and distribution, and man's response to each type. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

GEOGRAPHY 133. Geography of North America. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the natural regions of North America. Emphasis placed on man's response to the geographic environment of each region. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

GEOGRAPHY 231. Geography of South America. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the natural regions of the continent. Emphasis placed on the present economic development of the countries and the possibilities for future development. Trade relations emphasized also. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

GEOGRAPHY 232. Geography of Europe. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the influence of geographic factors on the development of the European nations. Special emphasis placed on world powers. Current questions concerning Europe also stressed. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

GEOGRAPHY 233. Geography of Asia and Africa. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the independent countries of these continents with emphasis on the natural resources of each, and on the possibility of future development. A study of the colonies and mandatories with the idea of determining the value of each to the mother country. Current questions stressed. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

GEOGRAPHY 331. Problems in the Teaching of Geography. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of objectives in the teaching of geography; means of realizing the objectives; selection and organization of units of work, the teaching of which will accomplish these objectives; map interpretation; standard tests; evaluation of classroom procedure. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

GEOGRAPHY 341. Historical Geography of America. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A brief survey of the history of early European commerce and trade routes as influenced by geography; conditions leading to the discovery of America; how each permanent settlement on the continent became adjusted to environmental conditions; expansion from the Atlantic seaboard to the Mississippi River; problems of transportation leading to the purchase of Louisiana Territory and expansion beyond the Rockies; problems of slavery resulting from this expansion and leading to Civil War; and a study of vast resources leading to the development of the United States into a world power. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

GEOGRAPHY 342. Geography of the Bible. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of Palestine and neighboring districts. Present-day conditions compared with those of Bible times. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

GEOGRAPHY 343. Geography of Virginia. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. An intensive study of the natural regions of Virginia, noting apparent relationships between types of agricultural and industrial activity and conditions of natural environment. Emphasis upon the possibilities for greater development in the future. A study of the objectives of the State Chamber of Commerce. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

GEOGRAPHY 441. Current Problems of the Americas. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. From current periodicals the class discovers the major problems confronting the Americas, selecting for intensive study those that appeal to them as the most vital and interesting. Each student is then given the privilege of selecting from the college texts and other library sources that material which seems to her most helpful in answering these questions: To what extent are geographic conditions responsible for the existence of these problems? Will their solution be influenced by geography? Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

GEOGRAPHY 442. Current Problems of Europe. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Problems selected and developed, with slight modifications, as in 441. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

GEOGRAPHY 443. Current Problems of Asia. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Problems selected and developed, with slight modifications, as in 441 and 442. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

HISTORY AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

DR. WALMSLEY, MISS TUCKER, MISS STUBBS, DR. SIMKINS,
MISS PECK, MISS COOPER

The work of this department is planned with three definite aims: to teach students to make their own valuation of text book statements, to apply the facts thus determined to conditions of real life, and to organize knowledge in a form that is teachable. Especial stress is laid on the fact that no one text contains complete truth on any question and that the real teacher no longer teaches from the book. No day's work is considered satisfactory that does not show evidence of research beyond the text book assignment.

A major in this department requires the following courses: History 131, 132, 133, 234, 235, 236, 347, 348, 349, 331, and two courses in Economics.

A minor requires six courses in History or six courses in Social Science.

It is suggested that students who take a major in History and who consider the probability of teaching in the upper elementary grades take History 221, 222, and 223 in lieu of 235, 236, and 331.

HISTORY 211, 212. History of Civilization. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. An orientation course in the development of modern life from savage days, through the growth of nations, to the present day. Required in Course I.

HISTORY 221, 222, 223. American History. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. History 221 begins with the European background of our history and includes a study of the development of the colonies. In the study of the English colonies emphasis is placed on the expansion of the Virginia colony. History 222 begins with the struggle for independence and traces the development of the new nation through the Civil War. History 223 takes up the problems that confronted the nation after the Civil War and stresses those factors that explain the rapid development of the United States to the present time. Required in Course II.

HISTORY 131, 132, 133. European History. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. History 131, in the fall quarter, is a survey of the ancient world with special emphasis on the factors which influenced the development and achievements of early Europe the contributions made by the Orient and the early Western nations to modern civilization. History 132 and 133 in the winter and spring quarters, after a brief review of Medieval History, include the Renaissance, the geographical discoveries, the Reformation and the Counter-Reformation, the Industrial Revolution, the French Revolution and its outcome. Open to First Year students in Course III.

HISTORY 234. Contemporary European History. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. The Liberalistic movement of the 19th and 20th Centuries, the World War and Reconstruction Problems. Open to Second Year students in Course III.

HISTORY 235, 236. Early American History. Three hours a week. Winter and spring quarters. Credit, three hours each quarter. History 235 includes the Colonial Background, the American Revolution, Founding the National Government, and the Jeffersonian Policies. History 236 includes the New Nationalism, the Jacksonian Democracy, the Advance to the Pacific, Sectionalism and Civil War. Open to Second Year students in Course III.

HISTORY 331. The Teaching of History in the High School. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. In addition to the professionalized subject matter given in the other courses in history, this course is offered to give a systematic study of some problems peculiar to the field of teaching history to high school students. It treats of the definition and aims of history, the organization of courses, the use of sources and collateral reading, methods of presentation, making history real, including historical pageantry, and the special qualifications of the history teacher. Required of all Third Year students who choose a major in this department.

HISTORY 347, 348. Later American History. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. History 347, Fall quarter, the United States from the Civil War to the Twentieth Century; History 348, Winter quarter, the period of Roosevelt, Wilson, and the World War.

HISTORY 349. World Politics. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. The relation of the United States to the problems of Imperialism and World Organization. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

HISTORY 441. Political History. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A brief course in the history of political thought and political parties, especially in the United States. Open to Third and Fourth Year students. (Omitted in 1932-33.)

HISTORY 442. Practical Politics. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the actual working of political parties in the United States. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

HISTORY 443. Advanced Virginia History. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. A detailed study of two or three political crises in Virginia history. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

HISTORY 444. International Relations. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of international trade and international peace. The methods used today to draw nations closer together and to regulate the difficult questions arising from national prejudices. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

HISTORY 447, 448. Latin American History. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. Offered alternate years. (447), A course in the exploration, colonization, and early history of Latin America. (448), A study of the national period of the Latin American States, including their relation with Europe and with the United States. Open to Third and Fourth Year students. [447 is offered in 1932-33.]

HISTORY 451, 452. The British Empire. Three hours a week. Winter and spring quarters. Credit, three hours each quarter. A study of the formation and present influence of the British Commonwealth, involving a brief treatment of colonialism, imperialism, and federation. Open to Third and Fourth Year students. [Omitted in 1932-33.]

HISTORY 454. Oriental History. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the conflicting interests of the Far East as affected by world politics. Open to Third and Fourth Year students. [Omitted in 1932-33.]

HISTORY 455. Classic Civilization. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A course dealing with those phases of Roman life, as affected by Greek culture, which left their impress on the life and the language of the Romance countries. Open to Third and Fourth Year students. [Omitted in 1932-33.]

HISTORY 457. American Problems. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. An attempt to evaluate some of the elements entering into the social America of today. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

GOVERNMENT 201. Citizenship. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. A course in the problems of American citizenship, with emphasis on State and local government. Required in Courses I and II.

LATIN

MISS RICE

The work of this department is planned to prepare teachers of Latin for the high schools of the State.

A major in Latin requires the following courses: Latin 131, 132, 133, 231, 232, 233, 341, 342, 343, and two courses selected from those open to Fourth Year students.

A minor requires the first two years of the major.

Prerequisite to choosing a major or a minor in this department: Three high school units in Latin.

LATIN 131. Livy, Roman History. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours.

LATIN 132. Horace, Odes. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours.

LATIN 133. Grammar and Composition. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours.

LATIN 231. Life and Literature of the Romans. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Roman life as seen in Roman literature; life and literature of the Romans as a factor in modern civilization; brief history of the Latin language and its relation to English.

LATIN 232. Life and Literature of the Romans. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A continuation of Latin 231.

LATIN 233. Intensive Study of Caesar. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Personality and career of Caesar, significance of his conquests, his writings as history and as literature; Roman military system; geography of Gaul; sentence structure and word order; drill in the building of a vocabulary; practice in sight-reading.

LATIN 341. Intensive Study of Cicero. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Brief history of the last century of the republic; personality and career of Cicero; comparison between Caesar and Cicero; typical structure of a Roman oration; practice in sight-reading.

LATIN 342. Intensive Study of Vergil. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Roman mythology and religion; the Augustine age; life of Vergil and the effect of environment upon his poetic genius and literary art; Roman epic poetry; study of the hexameter verse; and essays on Vergil from standard works.

LATIN 343. The Teaching of Latin. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. The present high school organization and the Latin curriculum; sources of vocabulary for first-year Latin; first-year Latin in relation to the grade in which it is taught and to the general aims and values of classical study; methods of presentation; proper emphasis upon geography, ancient life, and historical connections; use of maps, pictures, and various classroom helps; books for use of teachers and for reference purposes of pupils.

LATIN 441. Pliny's Letters. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Study of Roman life in the time of Domitian and Trajan. Elective in Fourth Year.

LATIN 442. Essays. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Elective in Fourth Year.

LATIN 443. Satire and Ars Poetica. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Elective in Fourth Year.

LATIN 451. Roman Comedy. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Five plays to be selected from Plautus and Terence. Elective in Fourth Year.

LATIN 452. Roman Philosophy. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Selections from Lucretius' De Rerum Natura. Elective in Fourth Year.

LATIN 453. Advanced Grammar and Composition. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Elective in Fourth Year.

NOTE—Rush Latin is given for the benefit of students in Course III who have not had the necessary prerequisites for the regular work in this department.

MATHEMATICS

MISS LONDON, MISS TALIAFERRO, MRS. JEFFERS

The work of this department is planned primarily to prepare students to teach arithmetic in the elementary grades and mathematics in the high schools. All work in the department is given with a full appreciation of the need for vitalization in all school work, and the effort is made everywhere to link up the work with the demands of real life.

Since teachers of high school mathematics are often called upon to teach arithmetic either in the high school or in the upper elementary grades it is strongly urged that students who choose a major or a minor in this department take as elective work some time during their course preferably in the First Year, some work in arithmetic. This may be either Mathematics 121, 122, and 123, or Mathematics 200.

A major in this department requires the following courses: Mathematics 141, 142, 143, 241, 242, 243, 331, 332, 341, 342, and 430.

A minor requires: Mathematics 141, 142, 143, 241, 243, and 331.

Prerequisites for choosing a major or minor in this department: One and one-half units of algebra and one unit of plane geometry.

MATHEMATICS 111, 112, 113. Arithmetic for Primary Teachers. Three hours a week. Credit, two hours each quarter. A professional treatment of the subject matter of arithmetic as taught in the elementary schools, including a consideration of the aims and outcomes to be desired, and a mastery of the skills and techniques of the subject. Mathematics 111 (Fall Quarter). Historical background, number concepts and number systems, psychological principles and general methods applied to arithmetic, the laws of drill, motivation, gradation, and rationalization. Wide reading for breadth of perspective. Mathematics 112 (Winter Quarter). The grade placement of topics for the seven grades of the elementary school, with detailed consideration of the first four grades. Definite methods of classroom procedure for these grades discussed with emphasis upon the four fundamental processes and upon the laws underlying their habituation. Mathematics 113 (Spring Quarter). A broad treatment of such topics as percentage, banking, measurements, graphs and other business practices for the twofold purpose of illustrating the characteristics of good problem material, and good problem technique and at the same time of giving to the future teacher that mastery of her subject essential to successful teaching.

Diagnostic tests and remedial work distributed throughout the year serve not only to bring the student's efficiency up to standard, but furnish the best possible basis for the discussion of methods, and at the same time give practice in the use of work books, the grading of tests, and the establishing of norms.

Personal and household budgets discussed, and an account book kept through one quarter. Practice in making out school reports.

Mathematics 111 or 112, preferably both, must precede Mathematics 113. Required in Course I.

MATHEMATICS 121, 122, 123. Arithmetic for Grammar Grade and High School Teachers. Three hours a week. Credit, two hours each quarter. In general treatment, these courses are similar to the ones outlined for Mathematics 111, 112, and 113, with the differences that here the emphasis is upon the social activities requiring arithmetic rather than upon the skill acquiring phases of the subject. Mathematics 121 (Fall Quarter). Same as outlined for Mathematics 111. Mathematics 122 (Winter Quarter). Grade placement of the topics for the seven grades of the elementary school, with detailed consideration of the last four. Emphasis upon the teaching of common and decimal fractions and upon the principles underlying these processes. Mathematics 123 (Spring Quarter). Topics covered same as in Mathematics 113, with more attention to problem technique and methods of teaching.

Diagnostic tests and remedial work distributed throughout the year same as for Mathematics 111, 112, and 113.

Personal and household budgets discussed, and an account book kept through one quarter. Practice in making out school reports. Mathematics 121 or 122 preferably both, must precede Mathematics 123. Required in Course II.

MATHEMATICS 141, 142, 143. Freshman Mathematics. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. Mathematics 141 (Fall Quarter). Algebra and Trigonometry. Mathematics 142 (Winter Quarter). Analytic Geometry and Algebra. Mathematics 143 (Spring Quarter). Calculus and Algebra. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

MATHEMATICS 200. Advanced Arithmetic. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. An advanced course in arithmetic treated professionally. Planned primarily to meet the needs of students in Course III who have mathematics as their major or minor subject and who wish one quarter of arithmetic as an elective. Open also to students from other departments who need arithmetic as a tool. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

MATHEMATICS 241. College Algebra. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A continuation of the course begun in Freshman Mathematics, covering the usual topics of college algebra. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

MATHEMATICS 242. Analytic Geometry. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. A continuation of the course begun in Freshman Mathematics. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

MATHEMATICS 243. Solid Geometry. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. The subject matter of solid geometry treated from the college viewpoint. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

MATHEMATICS 134. College Geometry. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. An extension of high-school plane geometry which includes some review of that subject from the professional standpoint. Elective in First and Second Years of Course III.

MATHEMATICS 341. Calculus. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Principles and applications. Elective in Third or Fourth Year of Course III. No credit unless followed by Mathematics 342.

MATHEMATICS 342. Calculus. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. A continuation of Mathematics 341. Elective in Third or Fourth Year of Course III.

MATHEMATICS 331, 332. The Teaching of High School Mathematics. Three hours a week. Spring and fall quarters.

Credit, three hours each quarter. A discussion of the objectives of high school mathematics; some historical background for appreciation purposes; general principles of secondary education applied specifically to the teaching of mathematics; a study of the presentation of typical parts of the different branches of the subject; acquaintance with mathematical educational materials, as magazines, books, and instruments; suggestions for auxiliary activities, as mathematics clubs, pupils' notebooks, field work; observation in the Training School. Required of all students who choose Mathematics as a major or minor.

MATHEMATICS 430. History of Mathematics. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Elective in Third or Fourth Year of Course III.

MATHEMATICS 443. Projective Geometry. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours. An introductory course. Elective in Third or Fourth Year of Course III.

MATHEMATICS 410. Honors Course in Mathematics.

MODERN LANGUAGES

MISS SMITHEY, MISS DRAPER

The work of the courses in Modern Languages is designed to give students wishing to teach in the high schools of the State a mastery of the language studied, especially with respect to pronunciation, grammar, and oral expression.

A major in French, or in Spanish, requires the following courses 131, 132, 133, 231, 232, 233, 341, 342, 343, and two courses selected from those numbered in the four hundreds.

A minor requires the first two years of the major.

An elective requires not less than three courses.

PREREQUISITE: Three units of Latin and two units of the modern languages selected as a major, minor, or elective; or two units of Latin and three units of modern languages.

The department offers courses in French, Spanish, and German.

FRENCH

FRENCH 101, 102, 103. A Course for Beginners. Five hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. For students who have not had the prerequisite for majoring or minoring in this department. This course does not give major or minor credit.

FRENCH 131, 132. Grammar, Pronunciation, Composition. Three hours a week. Fall and winter quarters. Credit, three hours each quarter. Critical study of grammar; pronunciation based on phonics; reading of simple texts; oral and written reproduction; dictation.

French 131 taken as an elective must be followed by French 132 and French 133.

FRENCH 133. Literature and Phonics. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Intensive and extensive reading of texts; study of phonics; dictation; oral and written reproduction.

FRENCH 201, 202. Grammar, Pronunciation, Composition. Three hours a week. Fall and winter quarters. Credit, three hours each quarter. For students who take French 101, 102, 103. A course similar to French 131, 132, 133, but more comprehensive. May count toward a major or minor.

FRENCH 203. Literature and Phonics. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours.

FRENCH 231, 232. Principles of Grammar and Phonics. Three hours a week. Fall and winter quarters. Credit, three hours each quarter. French 231 taken as an elective must be followed by French 232. In French 232 emphasis is placed on the study of verbs.

FRENCH 233. Methods and Composition. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. The teaching of French; principles of Modern Language teaching: methods of instruction; organization and presentation of subject matter. Composition: practice in oral and written use of the language; application of principles of teaching, grammar, and phonics. Open to Second and Third Year students.

FRENCH 341. Literature. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. An outline study of French literature with special reference to the origin of the language and of the literature.

FRENCH 342. Literature of the Seventeenth Century. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Reading of selected plays and letters of this period.

FRENCH 343. Literature of the Seventeenth Century. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. The classic writers of this period with special emphasis placed upon the work of Molière.

FRENCH 401. Literature of the Seventeenth Century. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Study of tragedy with special emphasis placed upon the work of Corneille and Racine.

FRENCH 402. Literature of the Nineteenth Century. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. The Romantic Movement in French literature with special reference to the work of Victor Hugo. Some study of Rostand and his work.

FRENCH 443. Contemporary Literature. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Some aspects of French literature of the present century. This course includes the reading of some lyrics. Elective in Third and Fourth Years.

SPANISH

SPANISH 101, 102, 103. A Course for Beginners. Five hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. For students who have not had the prerequisite for majoring or minoring in this department. This course does not give major or minor credit.

SPANISH 131, 132. Grammar, Pronunciation, Composition. Three hours a week. Fall and winter quarters. Credit, three hours each quarter. Critical study of grammar; pronunciation based on phonics; reading of simple texts; dictation, oral and written reproduction.

SPANISH 133. Literature and Composition. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Reading of Spanish texts suitable for second year high school classes.

SPANISH 201, 202. Grammar, Pronunciation, Composition. Three hours a week. Fall and winter quarters. Credit, three hours each quarter. For students who take Spanish 101, 102 and 103; a course similar to Spanish 131, 132 and 133, but more comprehensive. May count toward a major or minor.

SPANISH 203. Literature and Composition. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours.

SPANISH 231. Literature and Composition. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. The reading of stories and plays of intermediate grade with reference to teaching in secondary schools.

SPANISH 232. Literature and Composition. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Selected readings in prose and poetry for classes in secondary schools; oral and written composition; dictation.

SPANISH 233. Literature and Phonics. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Outline course in Spanish literature as a basis for further study of some of the great Spanish writers.

SPANISH 341. Literature and Composition. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. This course is a continuation of Spanish 233.

SPANISH 342, 343. Literature and Composition. Three hours a week. Winter and spring quarters. Credit, three hours each quarter. The reading of plays, stories, and lyrics of medium and advanced difficulty; oral and written reproduction; dictation.

SPANISH 441. Literature and Composition. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Some study of the origin and development of Spanish literature. Elective in Third and Fourth Years.

SPANISH 442. Literature and Composition. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Study of Cervantes, Lope de Vega, and Caledron. Elective in Third and Fourth Years.

SPANISH 443. Literature and Composition. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Study of Spanish writers of today. Elective in Third and Fourth Years.

GERMAN

Courses in German similar to those in French and Spanish will be given should there be sufficient demand for them.

NOTE: No credit is given for less than three consecutive courses in Spanish.

MUSIC

MR. STRICK, MISS PURDOM, MISS POTTS

The aim of this department is to emphasize the aesthetic, intellectual, and social values of music; to broaden the conception of the function of music in the public schools; to prepare the grade teachers to teach music in their respective grades; to prepare supervisors and special teachers of music in elementary and high schools; to help students in the use of the singing voice; and to bring all into an understanding and appreciation of the best music through group participation in song and through directed listening to the world's greatest musical literature.

A major in Music requires the following courses: Music 111, 112, 222, 223, 201, 202, 203, 341, 342, 350, 351, 352, 353, 401, 402, 403, 451, 452, 453, 460, and Reading 341.

A minor requires Music 111, 112, 222, 223, 201, 202, 203, 341, 342 and 350.

Students who take Music as a major or minor are required to pass a piano and voice test given by the Department of Music. The piano test will consist of playing a simple march, a piano selection of at least third grade, and the sight reading of any hymn or song used in the grades. The voice test will consist of the singing of three rote songs from memory, one accompanied on the piano while singing.

Music 101, 102, 103. Group Singing. One hour a week. Credit, one hour each quarter. The work of this course will be devoted to a study of Hymnology, Patriotic Songs, etc. Required of First Year students in all courses.

Music 111. Two hours a week. Offered fall and winter quarters. Credit, one hour. The first quarter of a three-quarter course leading to the teaching of music in the elementary grades. Voice training, ear training, rhythm drills, symbols of music, and beginning sight-reading. First Year of Courses I and II.

Music 112. Two hours a week. Offered winter and spring quarters. Credit, one hour. Voice training, rote songs, and study of interpretation. Written dictation. Material used in primary grades. First Year of Course I.

MUSIC 222. Two hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, one hour. Voice training, part singing, song literature for grammar grades. Written dictation. Second Year of Course II.

MUSIC 223. Two hours a week. Winter and spring quarters. Credit, one hour. Methods of teaching music in the elementary grades. Problems in tone, time, and theory; classification of voices. Appreciation. Grade outlines. Second Year of Courses I and II.

MUSIC 201, 202, 203. History of Music. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter.

MUSIC 301, 302, 303. General Music Appreciation. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. An elective course in the general appreciation of music, for advanced students.

MUSIC 341. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Chorus conducting; music terms; classification and problems of the changing voice in junior and senior high schools. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 342. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. A continuation of Music 341. Material and methods of junior and senior high school. Suitable programs. Required and elective courses in each. Clubs, orchestra. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 350. Sight-Reading and Ear Training. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Advanced sight-reading and dictation. Open to Second, third, and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 351. Elementary Harmony. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. Scales, keys, simple and compound time problems, intervals, transposition. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 352. Elementary Harmony. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Continuation of Music 351. Tonal tendencies and their use in melodies. Chords, cadences, keyboard practice. Original melody writing. Harmonization of given melodies. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 353. Elementary Harmony. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Continuation of Music 352. Chords in minor. Dominant chord modulation. Harmonization of original melodies. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 401, 402, 403. Advanced Choral Work. Two hours a week. Credit, two hours each quarter. A choir of thirty voices will be selected from the regular Choral Club, to do advanced work in choral singing, with lectures on Hymnology, Oratorio, and general choral work.

Required of students majoring or minoring in Music.

MUSIC 451. Music Appreciation. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. The media, quality of vocal and instrumental music. Study of instruments. Early folk music. National tendencies. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 452. Music Appreciation. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. Continuation of Music 451. Early church music. Development of instruments and their influence. Study of smaller forms of music. Beginning of opera, oratorio and suite. Classical period and its composers. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 453. Music Appreciation. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. Continuation of Music 452. Sonata, Symphony, Oratorio, Opera, Modern Suite. Romantic School. Modern Music. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 460. Choral Club Chorus. Two periods a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, one hour. Students desiring to elect choral club must have voices tested by director of music department, and upon selection may register for course. Study of best classical and modern choruses and preparation for one formal program each quarter. Open to Second, Third, and Fourth Year students.

MUSIC 360. Voice Class. Two periods a week. Fall quarter. Credit, one hour. Open to all students.

Violin Class for Beginners. Two periods a week throughout the year. Preparation for orchestral playing. Simple exercises and solos in first and third position.

PHYSICAL AND HEALTH EDUCATION

MISS BARLOW, MISS ILER, MRS. FITZPATRICK

This department, through instruction in hygienic living and the supervision of gymnastics, athletics, and play activities, aims to develop and maintain in the students bodily health, strength and endurance, wholesome attitudes, desirable habits and skills, to the end that they may lead more efficient lives; and by placing emphasis on the theory and methods of physical education, to prepare them to teach this subject in the elementary and high schools. In order to accomplish this two-fold purpose a physical examination is given every student upon entrance, and all are required to take some form of physical education throughout the first three years.

Athletics (under the supervision of an Athletic Association) forms an important part of the work. There are contests in seasonal sports, games, and athletics.

The object of Courses 101, 102, and 103 is to give to the student a large amount of material to use in her teaching with principles of selection, and at the same time provide opportunity for wholesome physical exercise and the development of desirable personal qualities and attributes associated with group activities. Courses 214, 215, 224, and 225 are especially designed to meet the law requiring the teaching of physical education in the schools.

There is no major in this department.

Students choosing Health and Physical Education as a minor must be physically fit and approved by the head of the department. A minor requires the following courses: Biology 131, 132, 133, Physical Education 101, 102, 103, 224, 225, 236, 231, 232, 300, 346, 347, 442, 445, 446, 451, 452, 453, and Home Economics 441.

Recommended electives: Courses in general chemistry, physics, home nursing, voice training, plays and festivals, and all practice courses in physical education open to Third and Fourth Year students.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 101, 102, 103. First Year Practice. Three hours a week. Credit, one hour each quarter. Practice in gymnastics, self-testing activities, elementary folk dancing, games, and general athletics. Talks on personal hygiene, health of the teacher, importance of good posture, and educational value of motor activities involved in physical education. Note book containing material suitable to teach in respective grades required.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 206. Health Education. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, three hours. A course following the outline of the State Board of Education, and having the following aims: (1) To create in students a health consciousness and to foster health habits; (2) to help each student to secure and maintain physical efficiency; (3) to give practical ideas for maintaining a healthful environment in school and community; (4) to train teachers to make annual inspections of pupils for obvious physical defects and to find ways to have defects corrected; also to make daily inspections. Required in Courses I and II.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 214, 215. Teaching of Physical Education in the Lower Elementary Grades. Three hours a week for two quarters. Credit, first quarter, two hours; second quarter, one hour. Theory, methods, practice. Instruction in the theoretical aspects and principles of physical education and the technique of conducting physical activities of varied sorts adapted to the interests and needs of children in the primary grades. Ways and means of organizing school and playground activities and Play Day programs. Practice teaching within the class. Required in Course I.

PREREQUISITE: One or more practice courses in Physical Education.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 224, 225. Physical Education in the Upper Elementary Grades and Junior High School. Same as 214 and 215, the work being adapted to the needs and interests of the upper elementary grades, and high school. Required in Courses II and III.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 231, 232. Anatomy and Physiology Applied. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. Fall quarter (231), Applied Anatomy and Kinesiology. Analysis of bodily movement involved in types of muscular exercise, in relation to motor skill, body growth and development, and physical efficiency. Winter quarter (232), Physiology of muscular exercise. A study of the effect of neuro-muscular action upon the organs of the body, principles underlying the development of organic vigor and the conservation of human energy. Offered alternate years beginning 1932-1933.

PREREQUISITE: Biology 131, 132, or equivalent.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 236. Playground and Recreation Activities. Three hours a week. Fall and spring quarters. Credit, one hour. Practice in games, stunts, athletics, and special programs, adapted to the average playground and community recreation center. Required in Course III.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 300. Health Education. Three hours a week. Fall quarter. Credit, three hours. A course similar in scope to Physical Education 206, but adapted to advanced students. Required in Course III.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 341, 342, and 343. Advanced General Practice. Three hours a week. Credit, one hour each quarter. Practice in all forms of physical training activity. Includes gymnastics, marching, calisthenics, athletic games, and folk dancing; practice in planning programs and teaching class. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

PREREQUISITE: Physical Education 101, 102, and 103, or equivalent.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 344. Personal Hygiene Applied. Three hours a week. Winter quarter. Credit, three hours. General review of the care of the body. History, development, and present day problems of mental hygiene. Emphasis placed upon methods of teaching hygiene in the grades. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 347. Playground and Community Recreation Leadership. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the organization and management of playground activities and community recreation programs. Aims and purpose of the playground as a social center considered. Training in leadership in school and community recreational clubs and extra curricular activities. Open to Second, Third, and Fourth Year students.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 442, 443, 444. Natural Dancing. Two hours a week. Credit, one hour each quarter. Practice in natural rhythms, interpretive dances, natural dance studies, and their adaptation to festival work. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 445, 446, 447. Clogging, Athletic, and Character Dancing. Three hours a week. Credit, one hour each quarter. Special practice in clogs, jigs, athletic, and character dancing, suitable for upper grades, high school, and college. Sandals or leather-soled gymnasium shoes required. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION 451, 452, 453. Coaching of Athletics. Two hours a week. Credit, one hour each quarter. Practice and study of technique in athletic games. Fall quarter, hockey, soccer and tennis; winter quarter, basketball, and volley ball; spring quarter, baseball, field and track events. Includes discussion of organization and management of athletic leagues, interscholastic and intrascholastic contests and field days. Open to Third and Fourth Year students.

NOTE: A regulation costume is required in all practice classes. This costume is purchased through the College, and costs approximately $6.00.

READING AND DRAMATICS

MISS WHEELER

The aim of this department is two-fold: to give opportunity for the improvement of the student's voice, speech, silent and oral reading, and to prepare students to teach reading in the elementary grades.

READING 211. Foundation Course in Reading. Three hours a week. Offered every quarter. Credit, two hours. Training in correct use of voice, articulation, pronunciation, critical analysis in silent reading, adequate vocal expression of the best literature and speaking before a group. Second Year of Course I.

READING 121, 222. Reading for Grammar Grade Teachers. Three hours a week. Reading 121 given in First Year. Credit, three hours. Reading 222 given in Second Year. Credit, two hours. A continuous course for two quarters especially adapted to the needs of grammar grade teachers. Training in silent and oral reading, and study made of the problems involved in the teaching of reading. Emphasis in first quarter placed upon the problems of teaching reading; in the second quarter upon the individual needs of the student. Required in Course II.

READING 341. Plays and Festivals. Three hours a week. Spring quarter. Credit, three hours. A study of the various types of dramatic entertainment suitable for school presentation, plays, festivals, and pageants. Opportunity is afforded for the study and application of the principles of producing, costuming, stage mechanics and make-up. Open to the Second, Third, and Fourth Year students. May be taken by students choosing English as a major or Physical Education as a minor; required of students choosing Music as a major.

READING 441, 442, 443. History and Development of English Drama. Three hours a week. Credit, three hours each quarter. A study and survey of the development of drama, particularly in England and America. Fall quarter (Reading 441), brief study of primitive and folk drama of various countries. Greek and Roman drama as bearing upon development in England. More careful study of beginnings of drama in England. Winter quarter (Reading 442), Elizabethan drama. Shakespeare's predecessors and contemporaries carefully studied, briefer notice being given to Shakespeare. Parallel reading, class study, and criticism of plays. Spring quarter (Reading 443), Modern English and American drama. Modern trend of drama as to subject and technique contrasted with earlier forms. Study of significant modern dramatists and of contemporary dramatic criticism. Open to Third and Fourth Year students. May count toward a major or minor in English, in Course III.

A dramatic club, under the direction of this department, gives opportunity for the development of special talent in any phase of play production. Any student may register for the apprentice period of three months. Those who show most ability are elected to full membership in the club and are assigned to work in one or more of the departments. The departments are: acting, stage setting, costume, make-up, lighting, property, and business. Several one-act plays are presented before the club, and two public performances of full length plays are given each year. It is the aim of the director to give each member of the dramatic club sufficient training to enable her to direct a play.
